EDWARD LARKIN PEGRAM⁶, son of Winchester Pegram and Mary Stowe, was born 7 January 1828, and died 23 June 1904. He married Juletta McGee Rhyne, 16 May 1857. Juletta was born 22 September 1833, and was the daughter of Daniel and Louise McGee Rhyne. The wedding was solemnized at the old Rhyne home, built in 1799, near Stanley, North Carolina (127), where they lived and were buried.

Edward Larkin Pegram volunteered for Confederate Service in July 1861, with the "Gaston Invincibles", Company B., 28th Regiment, under Capt. Theodore H. Edwards, Col. Lane commanding. He was appointed 2nd. Lt., and then 1st. Lt. He fought in the battle of Gettysburg, and was severely wounded in the face on the third day of the fight. After being disabled he served as Quartermaster Sergeant, and remained in Virginia until the end of the war.

"In World War I Edward Larkin Pegram had more descendants serving in that war than any other man from Gaston County, who had served in the Confederacy" (127).

The Index to Land Deeds of Gaston County, North Carolina lists many transactions by Edward Larkin Pegram, primarily during the period 1876 to 1912. Edward Larkin and Juletta had seven children: MARY ALICE⁷, LAURA LOUISE, SARAH IDA, EDWARD ALBURTUS, ERNEST LUCIUS, JESSIE VIOLA and LELIA EDNA.

VIOLET SUSAN PEGRAM⁶, daughter of Winchester Pegram and Mary Stowe, was born 22 January 1830, and died 22 February 1881, at her home in Dallas, North Carolina. Violet married Washington Freno Holland, born 2 April 1817, in Gaston County, and died there 18

November 1851. He was buried at Olney. Mr. Holland was the son of Issac Holland and Mary Rankin, both buried at Olney. A brief resumé of the Holland family was written by Willis F. Holland, grandson of Washington and Violet, and is deposited in the Gaston County Library. Violet and Mr. Holland had only one child: WASHINGTON FRENO HOLLAND JR.⁷.

WASHINGTON FRENO HOLLAND JR.⁷ was born 26 November 1851, in Dallas, North Carolina. His first marriage was to Ella Hunter, and they had issue:

LAURENCE P. HOLLAND⁸ married Ola Suttle, and they had: EUGENIA⁹, IRENE and LAURENCE P. JR.

Washington Freno Holland Jr was married a second time to Maggie Rhyne, daughter of Moses H. Rhyne and Margaret Hoffman, and they had:

WILLIS F.⁸, m. Nellie Rankin, c. FRANK⁹ and ELIZABETH.

EMMA

JAMES JENKINS, m. Essie Rankin (Hall). He died 4 March 1972, Mt. Holley, N.C., age 80.

EDITH.

RALPH.

After the death of Washington Freno Holland Sr., husband of Violet Pegram⁶, she married Jacob Froneberger, born 3 November 1836. Mr. Froneberger was a merchant of Dallas, North Carolina.

Mrs. Froneberger was a loyal member of the Presbyterian Church of Dallas of which her father, Winchester was the first Ruling Elder. She was a beloved teacher in its Sunday school for many years. She was highly esteemed by all who knew her. She and her husband are buried in the Presbyterian Church cemetery in Dallas. (19).

They had one daughter:

MARY ELIZABETH FRONEBERGER⁷ was born 11 May 1856 and died in 1940. She married John C. Puett of Dallas, North Carolina, and they had the following children:

CARRIE PUETT⁸, married R.S. Lewis, and they had CATHERINE⁹, ELIZABETH, MARY PUETT, died in infancy and JAMES R. The other children of Mary Elizabeth Froneberger and John C. Puett were JOHN⁸, BESSIE, HETTIE, CORINNE, ANNE, ARTIE LEE and JUANITA.

Both Miss Corinne and Miss Artie Lee Puett were living in July 1982. We visited with them in their large old Victorian home in Dallas, where they had spent their entire life. Miss Corinne was ninety two years of age and in poor health. She died in 1983. They had a large picture of Winchester Pegram and Mary Stowe hanging on the wall, as well as a picture of their grandmother, Violet Pegram Holland Froneberger. They permitted me to take the picture of Winchester and Mary to a local studio and have it copied for this book, Figure 35. There are a number of members of the Puett family in the Dallas-Gastonia area. Rachel Hannah Hoke (126) included a chapter on Mary Stowe and her descendants in her treatise on the Stowe family, from which some of the information given was obtained.

WILLIAM WINCHESTER PEGRAM⁶, son of Winchester Pegram and Mary Stowe, was born 12 August 1832, and died 6 December 1888. He married Margaret E. Elliott, 14 October 1856, in Charlotte, North Carolina. She was born 9 January 1833 and died 14 June 1896. They had three children:

WILLIS ELLIOTT PEGRAM⁷ was born 4 July 1857. He never married, and was killed in a fight in Texas, 9 April 1901. He is buried in Elmwood Cemetery in Charlotte.

MILES PINCKNEY PEGRAM⁷, son of William Winchester Pegram and Margaret

E. Elliott, was born 27 August 1860. He married Daisy M. Spring, 4 February 1885, in Charlotte, North Carolina. She was born in 1867. There were no children, but Miles Pinckney was appointed guardian of Mary Bessie Pegram, daughter of W.W. Pegram, deceased.

MARY ELIZABETH PEGRAM⁷ married John W. Powell, and they lived in the eastern part of North Carolina, near the South Carolina border. They had a daughter, MAGGIE⁸.

MILES PINCKNEY PEGRAM⁶, son of Winchester Pegram and Mary Stowe, was born 27 November 1834 and died 16 December 1915 or 16. He married Victoria Louise Tate, daughter of Thomas Randolph Tate and Annie Laura Humphries, 1 November 1876. She was born 11 April 1853 and died 4 June 1882. Miles Pinckney was a prominent banker in Charlotte, being President of the First National Bank (103). He owned considerable property in Gaston County in the latter part of the 1800s. He is listed many times in both the Grantor and Grantee indexes to real estate conveyances. He likewise owned property in Charlotte and other areas of Mecklenburg County. One who is interested in the extent and locations of property owned by the Pegram family can find pages of listings in the indexes to real estate conveyances of Gaston, Lincoln and Mecklenburg Counties of North Carolina, and in York County, South Carolina.

Miles Pinckney Pegram is buried in Elmwood Cemetery in Charlotte. He and Victoria had three children:

THOMAS RANDOLPH PEGRAM⁷, b. 5 Sept. 1877 or 78; d. 22 March 1941. He never married.

MILES PINCKNEY JR., b. 12 Nov. 1879; d. 21 April 1932, in Charlotte.

VICTOR LEWIS PEGRAM, b. 12 Nov. 1879; d. 23 May 1881. Since Miles Pinckney Jr. and Victor Lewis were born on the same date they were obviously twins.

ELVIRA EVELINA PEGRAM⁶, the last child of Winchester Pegram and Mary Stowe, was born 2 March 1837 and died 21 November 1844.

Some 260 descendants of Winchester Pegram and Mary Stowe have been listed. Some were missed, and there are many in more recent generations that are not known. Judging from the information available, these descendants are a group of citizens that have contributed substantially to their community and country.
